

Gladstone PCYC Irish Dancing – Code of Conduct

Class Conduct

Punctuality

- Students are to arrive 10 to 15 minutes prior to their class time. During this time, they are to put their shoes and socks on and start stretching and warming up.
- Students are expected to wait with their parent/guardian in the foyer until being called into the classroom to commence their class.

Attire

- As of January 2011, the advanced students will be expected to wear the class uniform. Beginner students are more than welcome to wear the class uniform, or alternatively, are asked to wear a comfortable fitting shirt and loose fitting shorts.
- No skirts, denim or long pants are to be worn to class.
- Bubble socks, or plain white socks are to be worn

Hair

- Students are to wear their hair pulled back off their face. Fringes are to be pinned back if they hang over their eyes.

Behaviour

- Students are to treat teachers and other students with respect.
- No foul language
- Students are to respect other's personal space
- Students are to listen and refrain from talking while the teachers are providing directions.
- No eating is permitted during class
- Students are required to bring a water bottle to class

Performance Conduct

Punctuality

- Students are to arrive 15 to 20 minutes prior to the performance time. During this time, they are to put their shoes and socks on and start stretching and warming up.
- Students are expected to arrive dressed and ready to go.

Attire

- Dependent on the particular performance, the student will be advised prior to the event what costume is required to be worn.
- Bubble socks, or plain white socks are to be worn
- Irish shoes, or black jiffy shoes can be worn by beginner dancers

- Adult dancers are to wear 70 denier black stockings

Hair

- Students are to wear their hair pulled up into a high bun.
- Fringes are to be pinned back – no wispy bits.
- No colour hairspray permitted
- No hair pieces, clips or headbands are permitted

Makeup

- No makeup is permitted unless previously outlined by the teachers.

Behaviour

- Students are expected to follow the Class Conduct rules on behaviour
- Students are to stay with the group for the entire duration of the performance
- Students are expected to maintain a respectable image for the entire duration of the performance.
- Students that are not listening, or are not available when called for a dance, will be omitted from that dance. Please note, that this will affect the other students in that group and may result in other students also missing out on that dance.
- Students are required to bring a water bottle to all performances
- No eating is permitted during a performance